The District Election Officers & DEOs, Visakhapatnam, East Godavari, Guntur, Chittoor, Anantapur, Nalgonda and Karimnagar & Commissioner, MCH & DEO., Hyderabad are Returning Officers of Graduates and Teachers Constituencies and all the Joint Collectors & Commissioner, M.C.H., are Returning Officers for the respective local authorities' constituencies. Since, under the Election law, the District Election Officer and Returning Officers are statutorily responsible for the fair and efficient conduct of the elections in their constituencies, it is of utmost importance that the Returning Officers should study carefully and be thoroughly conversant with the relevant statutory provisions for the proper conduct of the elections in their constituencies.

3. Copies of the Handbook for the Returning Officers and Manual for Voting and Counting have already been supplied by this Office for the Elections to State Legislative Council of the Local Authorities', Graduates' and Teachers' Constituencies well in advance. In addition, (i) Hand Book for Presiding Officers, (ii) Hand Book for Candidates have been recently supplied. Further additional clarifications sought by the Districts have been provided in consultation with Election Commission most recently on 15.02.2007. All this information is available on the web site "ceandhra.nic.in". Paragraphs 1 to 22 in chapter II of the Hand book deals with the functions of the Returning Officers.

4. The following are some of the important items which the Returning Officers should attend on priority.

5. NOMINATIONS AND THEIR SCRUTINY ETC.

- (i) Qualifications for membership of Legislative Council are given under Article 173 of the Constitution of India and under Section 6 of the Representation of the People Act, 1951, while the disqualifications are given in Article 191 of the Constitution and in chapter III of the Representation of the People Act, 1951.(Manual of Election Law Vol.I)

The forms of oath or affirmation are given in Annexure XIII and the Election Commission's notifications authorizing certain persons in this behalf are reproduced as Annexure XIV of Hand Book for R.Os.
- (ii) The oath or affirmation will have to be taken or subscribed by candidates before the authorized officer after filing the nominations and by latest before the date of scrutiny. This should be explained to the candidates. Normally the candidates take the oath immediately after the filing nominations itself. However instructions from Para 19.1 to 20 of Hand Book for Returning Officers 1992 may be followed.

If there is no such authority or if the person so authorized by the candidate is neither his proposer nor his election agent, the withdrawal is of no effect and must be ignored. As soon as valid notice of withdrawal is received, a notice thereof in Form 6 should be published on notice board. - (ii) Assignment of duties to Polling Officers and application of indelible ink has been detailed in the Hand Book for Presiding Officers.
- (iii) The District Election Officer has to select staff from other Departments according to availability and suitability and make them available to the Returning Officer. A list of persons suitable for appointment as polling personnel in the various capacities, separately for each polling station proposed to be located in their respective areas and also the reserve polling personnel should be drawn up in advance. The list should contain clear particulars about the name of the officer, his official designation and address and his designation at the polling station. After it is known that there will be a contest, appointment orders should be issued in the same form as was adopted for the Assembly elections. The personnel selected for polling duties may be given training in at least two classes at some convenient centre in the district. The Handbook for Presiding Officers supplied recently to all DEOs should be used as basis for training to the POs.
- (iv) As far as possible, the teaching staff should not be appointed as polling personnel in view of the annual examinations.

14. BALLOT BOXES:

Ballot boxes are being used in the elections to the Council Constituencies. All DEOs shall keep ready the sufficient number of boxes for the use. Each polling station should be supplied with two ballot boxes – one big size and one small size. When the big size ballot box gets filled with ballot papers and no more paper can be inserted in it, another empty box should be placed in its place for continuing the poll, after preparing the new ballot box for balloting in the same manner as the first. Route and Zonal Officers should be provided with reserve ballot boxes. There may be common polling stations for Graduates' and Teachers' in many constituencies. At such polling stations, a common ballot box shall be used at one time for receiving the ballot papers of both the elections (Graduates' & Teachers'). As the ballot papers will be of different colours, they can be easily separated at the time of counting.

- (i) Please refer to Part III of the Conduct of Elections Rules, 1961.
- (ii) Printing of postal ballot papers must be completed within 24 hours after the last hour for withdrawal of candidatures and the dispatch of these ballot papers must be completed within the next 24 hours. The instructions issued on the form of postal ballot papers and papers to be sent with postal ballot paper and record of postal ballot papers etc., at paras 14 to 15.3, 19.1 & 19.2 of Chapter IX of the Hand Book for Returning Officer (Council Elections) should be followed scrupulously. Under Rule 23 (3) of the Conduct of Elections Rules, 1961, before any ballot paper is issued to an elector by post in a local authority constituency, the serial number of the ballot paper shall be effectively concealed in the manner prescribed by the Commission. The Returning Officer shall mark the name of elector in the marked copy of the electoral roll to indicate that ballot has been issued to him and ensure than the elector is not allowed to vote at a polling station.

16. BALLOT PAPERS:

- (i) Immediately on receipt of the list of contesting candidates from the Returning Officers, the Commissioner, Printing Stationery will arrange for the printing and supply of the ballot papers to the Returning Officers on the assessment furnished by them. The ballot papers for Council Constituencies shall be printed in Telugu and English languages. These ballot papers will be in the form enclosed at Annexure-3 and size etc., as mentioned in Chapter-IX of the Handbook for Returning Officers. On receipt of the ballot papers, they should be checked up carefully. The R.O. shall issue instructions to the officials deputed for overseeing the work of printing of ballot papers to verify the ballot papers after printing regarding the correctness of total quantity and serial numbers before taking delivery. It should be remembered that under Rule 38A (3) of the Conduct of Elections Rules, 1961, in the case of Local Authorities' Constituencies, the serial numbers on ballot papers will have to be effectively concealed after thorough checking. The Government Press Authorities shall arrange a black slip for concealment of serial number of the ballot papers in respect of local authorities' constituency. The serial numbers of the ballot papers, with a small reserve for each polling station may be allocated at each polling station in advance with reference to the number of voters to it. A statement showing the serial numbers of the ballot papers, authorized for use at each polling station should also be prepared separately.
- (ii) The ballot paper, before it is issued to the voter should be signed on the back by the Presiding Officer and the procedure for shuffling of ballot papers before they are issued to the electors should be followed. Detailed instructions about this have been given in the Hand Book for Presiding Officers.
- (iii) The distribution of the ballot boxes, ballot papers and other articles and equipment required for the polling stations should be taken up sufficiently ahead of the date of poll and all arrangements completed in time.
- (iv) Distinguishing mark on ballot paper: According to para 9.1 of chapter-IX of the Handbook for Returning Officers (Council Elections) every ballot paper and its counterfoil which is to be used at an election in a council constituency shall be rubber stamped on its backside with the serial number of the polling station. For instance, all ballot papers issued to electors at polling station number 53 in a council constituency shall be stamped as (53).

17. BANDOBUST ARRANGEMENTS:

As usual, bandobust arrangements at polling stations and the plan to collect the boxes from the stations and bringing consultation with the Superintendents of police well ahead of the date of poll and extra forces deployed at sensitive points.

18. TRANSPORT OF POLLED BALLOT BOXES & ITS STORAGE:

Detailed instructions have already been issued on distribution and reception centres, storage of polled ballot boxes and its storage and transport to strong rooms at counting centres in Government Circular No.8, dt. 2.2.2007 (Govt.Memo No.217/Elecs.F/2007-2, dt. 2.2.2007). The Returning Officer should inform the candidates or their election agents sufficiently in advance about the programme of the collecting parties being sent by him and change if any. The route for the collection of the material from the polling station after the conclusion of the poll and intermediate strong rooms and the date and time of the shifting of polled ballot boxes to the strong room at Counting centre should also be intimated. Candidates may make arrangements, if they so desire, for sending their agents to accompany such collecting parties. The agents of the candidates should, however, make their own arrangements for their transport and they, in no case should be allowed to travel in the same vehicles in which the polled ballot boxes and other material and polling parties are transported. The contesting candidates should be permitted to post their agents to keep watch at the place where the polled ballot boxes are stored till the counting.

19. COUNTING CENTRES:

- (i) The arrangements for counting are detailed in Chapter XII of the Handbook for ROs. The counting centres for Graduates' and Teachers should invariably be identified in the same premises wherever common polling booths are involved. Even otherwise, as the R.O. is the same, it is preferable that both the centres be located in one premises. The District Election Officers shall ensure that there will be no overlapping with examination centres of Intermediate / SSC while identifying the counting centres. Hence, before finalization, Regional Joint Directors, Higher Education / District Educational Officers shall be consulted. The DEOs shall ensure that necessary infrastructure like water, electricity, etc., are available in the counting centres. Generators shall be made available as stand by.
- (ii) Necessary proposal in this regard along with the counting centre, strong room & counting hall layouts in prescribed proforma as mentioned in the Commission's letter No.470/98/PLN-I, dt.26.12.1997 (copy enclosed at Annexure-4) should be sent to this office by 21.02.2007 to forward the same to the Election Commission of India for approval. The proforma should be suitably modified to suit Legislative Council elections. Please note that counting hall layouts (as mentioned in Circular No.8) should invariably be included in the proposal. The intermediate storage plan and shifting of boxes etc., from intermediate storage centre to Counting centre shall also be sent along with the proposal.
- (iii) Suggested plan of storage of polled ballot boxes and its transport to strong room in Counting centre as detailed in Circular No.8, dt. 2.2.2007 shall be kept in mind while preparing the counting centre proposals.

- (i) The counting will be taken up on 21.03.2007 for local authorities' constituencies elections and on 23.03.2007 for graduates' and teachers' constituencies election.
- (ii) Instructions for counting under the system of proportional representation by means of single transferable vote were issued in the Manual on voting and counting in Council elections, which were already provided to all the District Election Officers and training was also conducted to the Returning Officers. They should be followed very carefully. As the counting of votes under single transferable vote method is some what complicated, the Returning Officer should conduct two or three rehearsals of counting in advance and train the personnel properly.

21. INTIMATION OF RESULT:

- (i) Immediately after the result is declared, intimation thereof should be communicated by fax to the CEO / ECI and others as prescribed in Chapter XIII of the Hand Book for ROs.
- (ii) Form 21A or 23 (Declaration of result) as the case may be and Form 23B (Return of Election) should be filled in and sent to the Election Commission and the Chief Electoral Officer. Forms are available in the Manual of Election Law, 2004 (Volume.II) under Conduct of Elections Rules, 1961.

- (iii) Two copies of the declaration of result should be sent to the Chief Electoral Officer immediately by express delivery for publication in the Andhra Pradesh Gazette. One copy of the declaration of result should be sent to the Election Commission and another copy to the Secretary, Andhra Pradesh Legislative Council, Public Gardens, Hyderabad.

22. CERTIFICATE OF ELECTION:

Under rule 85 of the Conduct of Elections Rules, 1961, a certificate of election in Form 24 should be granted to the returned candidate soon after the result is declared and his acknowledgement obtained in the prescribed form and sent to the Secretary, Andhra Pradesh Legislative Council, Public Gardens, Hyderabad.

23. ELECTION EXPENSES:

There is no provision in Election Law, requiring candidates elected from council constituencies to submit return of election expenses as in the case of Assembly and Parliamentary elections.

24. CONCLUSION:

It is hereby emphasized that strict adherence to these instructions as well as all statutory Acts and Rules is essential for smooth conduct of elections. At each stage of elections, the corresponding instructions as well as statutes may be studied carefully, and acted upon scrupulously.

ELECTION COMMISSION OF INDIA

Nirvachan Sadan, Ashoka Road, New Delhi -110001

C. R. BRAHMAM
SECRETARY (PLANNING)

NO. 470/98/PLN-I

Dated 26th December, 1997

To

The Chief Electoral Officers of all
States and Union Territories

Dear CEO,

Subject : Setting up of counting centers for the General Elections, 1998 – Information Sheet On Counting centres.

I am directed to state that as per existing instructions, Counting Centres are to be set up in Pucca buildings. It would be preferable if the ownership of the Buildings vests with the Government. The Commission has recently carried out a short review on the situation as it exists on ground. It is revealed that by and large almost all States have been adhering to the practice of having their counting centres in pucca buildings which are owned by the Government. There are, however, some States where a large number of temporary structures are erected for counting of votes at the time of general elections.

2. It is felt that this is an unwelcome situation and requires to be rectified. The CEOs are directed to instruct the Returning Officers of each Parliamentary Constituency to identify Pucca buildings preferably owned by the Government or Public Sector Undertakings departments or some government organisation. If no such buildings are available, other public institutional buildings can be selected. The buildings should be located within the jurisdiction of R.Os. This exercise should be completed by the Returning Officers as early as possible.

3. The R.O. should personally inspect the site along with the senior police officers of the district. After the inspection and selection of the site, the proposals for approval should be sent to the CEO of the State / Union Territory.

4. The CEOs should send proposals so as to reach the Zonal Secretary in the Commission dealing with the State/UT by 20-01-1998 for the approval of the Counting Centres by the Commission. Under no circumstances this date can be extended and the CEOs, if necessary, should send consolidated proposals to the Commission through special messengers.

5. An Information Sheet on Counting Centres devised is forwarded herewith. A copy of the Information Sheet may be forwarded to the Returning Officer of each Parliamentary Constituency immediately. The Returning Officers should fill the Information Sheet and forward the same to the CEO who in turn shall send the same to the Commission as mentioned in the preceding para to the Zonal Secretary in the Commission dealing with the State/UT. Proposals not received in the prescribed Information Sheet for each Parliamentary Constituency will not be entertained in the Commission.

6. Please note that the Returning Officers may immediately apply for the required telephone Numbers for the counting centres well in advance and settle with the Department of Telecommunication the actual numbers being allotted for the purpose so that the R.O. can include these telephone / fax numbers in the Information Sheet. It is to be understood that these telephone numbers become operational at least one week in advance of the actual date of counting. These telephone / fax numbers of the Counting Centres are also required for the information of the Commission, the CEO and for use of media personnel and others interested.

7. Similarly regarding alternative electricity and Fire Fighting arrangements, Returning Officer should apply his mind and assess the infrastructure available for the town/area. The R.O. should, therefore, interact with the local Electricity Officers, Fire Fighting Officers and decide all the arrangements proposed to be made in and around the Counting Centre.

8. The R.O. should provide alternative electricity supply which may be required in case of failure of general electricity supply.

9. The R.O. should also draw detailed plans for arrangements he proposes to make necessary infrastructure for the public who may gather around the counting centre during counting of votes out of curiosity to know the progress and results. Another aspect which the R.O. has to assess and provide for is the Public Address system for announcement of the progress of counting and results.

10. Even though some of these issues do not form a part of the Information Sheet, the R.O. is required to plan to meet above mentioned requirements.

11. He also should also assess the security and law & order situation of the site along with senior police officers and give his independent assessment to the Chief Electoral Officer.

12. Kindly note that the above procedure is to be followed for all future general or bye-elections. The verification/inspection should be completed within 15 days of the dissolution of the House in case it is dissolved before completion of its normal tenure. Otherwise this should be completed before three months of the normal completion of the tenure of the House.

Yours faithfully,

(C. R. BRAHMAM)

N.B:

As for Chief Electoral Officer, Uttar Pradesh, and NCT of Delhi, These instructions may be read in continuation of the letter D.O.No. 464/UP/47(Inst.), dated 3-10-97 to CEO, Uttar Pradesh and No. 64/DL/97, dated 20-10-97 to CEO, Delhi. They are to furnish the data on the Counting Centres in the prescribed Information Sheets within the dateline prescribed.
