--:o0o:--

The attention of the District Election Officers of Srikakulam, Vizianagaram, Visakhapatnam, Prakasam, Nellore, Chittoor, Kadapa, Anantapur, Kurnool, Mahabubnagar, Ranga Reddy and Hyderabad districts is invited to the references cited. The Election Commission of India, in the reference third cited, has since issued the programme to hold Biennial Elections to the (3) three Graduates' and (3) three Teachers' Constituencies of A.P. Legislative Council. As per the programme the last date of making nominations is 22.02.2011.

2. As per the clarification issued by the Commission in the reference first cited in respect of acceptance of claims and objections under continuous updation process upto the last date of making nominations and, in continuous of the clarification already issued by this office in the reference second cited, the District Election Officers and Electoral Registration Officers of the above said Graduates' and Teachers' Constituencies are further clarified that the claims and objections received under continuous updation upto 10 days prior to the last date of nominations ie., upto 12.02.2011 shall be disposed of and published as a supplement. This is because the date of posting of the application in the Notice Board by the Electoral Registration Officer for inviting objections under sub-rule (3) of rule 26 of Registration of Electors Rules, 1960 should be excluded while computing the mandatory period of seven days within which objections can be filed by someone. One more day is required to dispose of the application under sub-rule (4) thereof. One more day would be required to make necessary entries in the Registers prescribed for the purpose and preparation of manuscript for data entry. After 12.02.2011, applications may be received but the applicants should be informed that the disposal would be taken up only after the completion of the present elections.

3. All the District Election Officers / Electoral Registration Officers of Graduates' and Teachers' Constituencies are requested to follow the above instructions scrupulously and furnish the strength of electors in the following format, by 23.02.2011:
